

Missouri Connections: Iceland

Missouri's exports to Iceland in 2019: $1.2M¹

- Special classification provisions
- Electrical equipment/components
- Food manufactures
- Machinery, except electrical
- All others

Missouri's imports from Iceland in 2019: $121,774¹

- Beverages & tobacco
- Misc. manufactured commodities
- Apparel manufacturing products
- Fish & other marine products
- All others

The University of Missouri offers a degree in International Studies w/a concentration in European Studies

Cultural organizations

Ozark Scandinavian Society of Springfield²

1 Icelandic company in Missouri

1 Missouri company in Iceland

¹ International Trade Administration

² <https://www.facebook.com/NordicSGF/>

Missouri Partnership is a public-private economic development organization focused on attracting new jobs and investment to the state and promoting Missouri's business strengths. We work in partnership with the Hawthorn Foundation, the Missouri Department of Economic Development, the State of Missouri, and economic development agencies across the state.

